Prospectus

Salisbury's wrestling team will again be one of the top teams in the Mason-Dixon Conference after a remarkable first season of Conference action.

In only its third year of wrestling, Coach Mike McGlinchey's squad finished with a 16-2 record and a 9-0 Conference mark. The team won the Mason-Dixon Dual Meet Championship and four of the Sea Gull wrestlers went to the NCAA Division II National Championships.

"We'll have a hard time duplicating last year's record," says McGlinchey. "We have improved the schedule and I think we'll have a lot better wrestling team by the end of the year. The more difficult schedule will help us prepare for the Conference Championship Meet at Salisbury," notes the Coach.

Top returning members of last year's squad which finished second at the Mason-Dixon Conference Championship Meet, includes four runner-ups in that meet. They are Keith Mumford (126), Craig Bradley (134), Dave Wadsworth (167) and Tom Monthley (190). Other top returnees are John Terrell (118), Pat McKenzie (158) and Louie Amabili (Hwt.).

The way it looks by weight class:

118 lbs.- Two-year letterman John Terrell (10-6 last year) is being pushed by freshman Jim Downey, a top wrestler in Anne Arundel County the last two years. Downey is a two-time second place finisher in the Region III Championships. Transfer Ralph Pratt is another top candidate pushing for a starting nod. He is a Mid-Ohio Conference.

126 lbs.- Sophomore Keith Mumford (11-5) is the top contender after a second place finish in the Conference last season and a trip to the Nationals. Junior Tom Clarke (1-1) is again pushing Mumford hard for the starting spot. Clarke finished third in the Delaware Tournament.

134 lbs.- Sophomore Craig Bradley (14-3) will again be the man to beat in this weight class. He was a runner-up in the Conference and went to the Nationals last year. He was a two-time district and regional champion at Mardela High before joining the Sea Gulls. He will be pushed by Tom Clarke and Robie Davis, a JV wrestler last season.

142 lbs.- Freshman Dave Bock brings impressive credentials to SSC after a successful career at Perry Hall High. He finished first in Baltimore County, the regionals and at various AAU and U.S. Wrestling Federation meets. He also wrestled against the Polish All-Star team. He is being pushed by sophomore Jim Penuel, a JV wrestler last season.

150 lbs.- Three freshmen are the top challengers for the starting spot in this weight class. Keith Cordrey from Sussex Central in Georgetown, Del., had an outstanding high school record. Kirk Palchefsky went to perennial state power Laurel (Md.) High where he had a good record. Bob Loun from Frederick (Md.) High won local, county and district championships.

158 lbs.- Three-year letterman Pat McKenzie (7-8) is expected to have his best year ever. A third place finisher in the Conference Championship Meet last year, he is facing a stiff challenge from letterman Mark Nay (2-2) and freshman Mark Allen from Seaford (Del.) High.

167 lbs.- Senior Dave Wadsworth (18-0) was an outstanding high school and junior college wrestler. He won all 18 of his dual meet matches last season, was last year's wrestling MVP as he also finished second in the Conference and went on to the Nationals. He will face a challenge from freshman Dean Cox from Perryville (Md.) High. Cox is a three-time Cecil County Champion and a Regional Champion.

177 lbs.- Sophomore Doug Gills (4-1), a letterman last year will be the top candidate for the starting spot. Gills was All-County at Southern (Md.) High and he finished second in the regionals and fifth in the State. He will face the challenges of Dean Cox and freshman Richard Hickey, who has an outstanding prep career at Blue Ridge Academy in Virginia.

190 lbs.- Veteran Tom Monthley (9-4) will return to the squad after finishing second in the Conference last season. Monthley may miss the meets held during the first semester, but he is expected to be ready to go in January. Doug Gills, who saw duty last year at 190 and heavyweight, will fill in at 190.

Heavyweight- Letterman Louie Amabili (5-0) returns to the squad again this year. A strong wrestler who has improved each year, Amabili will be pushed by freshman Mike Garcia who finished fifth in the New Jersey State Championships and third in the Massachussetts State Championships.

Other members of the team who may work their way into the starting spots are Dave Buddenbohn (150), Pat Hall (Hwt.), Jim Peters (150), Dave Savercool (134) and Steve Turner (142).
